CAPIS Rebrands Its Suite of Institutional Products and Services

DALLAS, October 5, 2009—Capital Institutional Services, Inc. (CAPIS), one of the industry's top institutional agency brokerages and research providers, today introduced CAPISConnect, its rebranded product and service offerings for investment managers, plan sponsors, and broker-dealers.

“For over 32 years, we have connected our clients with agency-based, conflict-free brokerage and advisory solutions,” said Kristi P. Wetherington, president and CEO of CAPIS. “As the market moves through these times of uncertainty, we wanted to create an overarching theme that represents our commitment to providing solutions that benefit our clients.”

Rebranding CAPIS’s product line better reflects the ways in which CAPIS helps institutional investors. The services within CAPISConnect help current and prospective clients connect with best-of-breed trade execution, independent research solutions, and superior personalized service.
